The following statement was entered into the record for Supervisor Molina:

“The Board of Supervisors proudly proclaims the week of March 26 through March 31, 2007 as ‘Cesar Chavez Community Service Week,’ commemorating the life of a true American hero. ‘Continuing the Legacy’ is the theme of the sixth annual week-long tribute to Chavez, who dedicated his life to serving others and bringing social equality to all people. The anniversary of his birth is Saturday, March 31, 2007.

“As an example of Cesar Chavez’ service to others, the County’s observance will consist of volunteer opportunities for County employees at community centers, neighborhood organizations, parks, libraries, probation camps, animal shelters, through beautification projects and a beach clean-up.

“In addition, County employees will continue the tradition of the Chavez Food Drive from March 19 through March 30, 2007. Nearly 25,000 pounds of food items and products have been donated by County employees to the Los Angeles Regional Food Bank.

“County departments are encouraged to once again tailor existing educational and cultural programming and activities to emphasize the mission and theme of Cesar Chavez Community Service Week.

“The Cesar Chavez curriculum will be used as part of this year’s arts contest, a competition among youths at the County’s Probation camps and schools, and the library’s web-accessible curriculum will also be available to schools.”
